CELL PHONES ON AIRBORN FLIGHTS? NO NO NO NO NO
OH PULEASE THINK ABOUT THIS. THE HOME BOUND SALES PERSON
BRAGGING OF (?) AD NAUSEUM. TO WHAT WAS BOUGHT IN MEXICO TO CRYING BABIES TO OVERSCENTED PERSONS WHO USUALLY ALSO OVERFLOW
THE SEAT AND GRAB BOTH ARMRESTS, THIS WOULD BE THE LAST STRAW.

ANSWER IS TO PUT THEM ALL IN ONE SECTION SO THAT A COMPETITION FOR HEARING AND YELLING WOULD BE IN ONE AREA, LIKE WE USED TO HAVE A SMOKING SECTION. AND LASTLY, WHERE DOES A TAX PAID
DIV. OF GOV. GET OFF DECLARING THIS WILL BE SO HAPPENING??
IS THERE ANY PART OF "NO TO CELL PHONES" NOT CLEAR HERE??

Thank you for your attention

FCC - MAILROOM

Dear Mr. Powell:

Ref: Use of cell phones in passenger Airplanes.

- I sincerely hope that FCC and FAA will keep restrictions on the use of cell phones in flight.
- Can you imagine the discomfort and nuisance created by say 300 people yacking on cell phones - in an enclosed space? - talking on their phones as a form of entertainment?
- It is bad enough putting up with them while waiting at the gate -
one can hardly hear the PA system at times.
- Forget those whom it is to read, rest or sleep. Right?

- Emergency calls yes - but through the courtesy of the flight attendant.
- Unlimited access of cell phones in flight should not even be considered.
- The present government has been rushing to decisions without due consideration or foresight - the result of which has produced dire conditions.
- Must we continue with this mind set?

Thank you for your attention to this.

Sincerely
Ruth Mills

FCC - MAILROOM

Gentlemen:

Jan 15, 2005

Cellphones on travel aircraft. Worst idea in years. My reaction. Someone sits down next to me and starts a chat up on a cellphone.

1. Ask person to please cease talk on phone.
If request not met.
2. Ask stewardess to ~~me~~ move ~~me~~ me away from cellphone talkers. If not done.
3. Start a big argument with cellphone freak.
4. If this does not work.
5. Try and beat the shit out of the cellphone freak.
6. If restrained by anyone and handcuffed to seat by ~~x~~cellphone jerk.
7. ~~X~~ Upon landing get my attorney on the phone and go to a court of law for redress.
